riage licenses issued from the county clerk's office—four white and eleven colored—as follows:

beth R. Reed, John Walton Page to

PROPOSED LOCAL OPTION FOR FRANKLIN.—A number of Franklin people this week had a meeting looking towards the organization of those opposed to liquor traffic. Rev. C. C. Wertenbaker presided. On motion it was decided to have appointed a committee of six persons to circulate petitions for the requisite number of signatures to have a local option election ordered.
The following were named: P. D. Camp, S. B. Fretlow, C. C. Vaughn, Sr., A. L.
Gardner, John Fretlow, Sr., and I. W.
Norfleet. If I am rightly informed, Franklin had an experience with local option a few years ago.

SEMINARY RECITAL.—An invitation is acknowledged to attend a recital at Nansmond Seminary, 34 and 36 Bank street, on Friday evening, May 1, 1896, at 8:30 o'clock. The programme, of two parts, of twelve members each, is excellently arranged, and consists of solos, duets, choruses and recitations. The previous success of similar entertainments at this seminary is a guarantee of its artistic execution. Mrs. Lucy H.
Quimby is principal and teacher of elocution, while Mrs. Fannie C. Munday and Misses Helen Sherwood and Frances L. Quimby are teachers of piano, violin and organ and vocalization.

PARTIAL HOLIDAY FOR EMPLOY-EES.—In pursuance of a request presented in a petition, W. B. Ferguson & Co., wholesale grocers, have decided to give their employees a holiday every Saturday afternoon after 3 o'clock. U.
L. Saunders & Co., the only other wholesale grocery firm here, will probably do likewise.

Officers Did Not Show Up.

Newport News, Va., April 30 (Special).
—THE COURTS.—The Hustings Court, Andrew Keyett, and E. B. Keyett, Roane were refused a liquor license, and the Treasurer was ordered to re-liquor license, as also were William Denmark and Mrs. S. A. Murphy.

Alexander Dunn, India Nason, Phil Brown were granted licenses to keep ordinaries.

J. B. Ashley was granted a wholesale and retail liquor license.
In the case of the Commonwealth vs.

Police Justice was affirmed, that is, Lawson was found guilty of both shooting in the public highway and carrying concealed weapons.

POLICE COURT.—A very limited amount of business of an unimportant character was dispatched in this court yesterday.

CONFERENCE FOR CONCILIA-TION.—To reach an amicable settlement of the issue if possible, and to avoid the threatened hostilities among the farmers of Cypress district, which seemed imminent a week-ago, a committee of three, each from the advocates and opponents of the "no-fence" movement, is scheduled to have a conference in Suffolk Saturday. It is to be hoped that the existing differences will be finally settled.

PLAYED OFF SICK.—Sam Davis, after working two days in the ball and chain company, complained of being sick, and for the past four days has been allowed to do nothing. A suspicion that he was playing off was today confirmed when Davis was examined by Dr. W. W. Nothing, who says there is nothing the matter with his health.

COUNCIL FRIDAY NIGHT.—The Town Council will hold their regular monthly meeting Friday night. It is thought that some action will be taken on the proposed street sprinkler, as nearly all the members have stated that they were favorable to the proposition.

DEATH AT GATESVILLE.—Mrs. I.
W. Casten, one of the best-known ladies of Gates county, N. C. died last night, aged about 27 years, in Gatesville, the county seat. The funeral was held this afternoon from Kiltrell's M.
E. Church, concluding which, the remains were taken to Willetton for interment. Several friends of the family from Suffolk attended. Deceased was a sister of H. B. Cross, Esq., Treasurer of Gates county.

CHAIN GANG GROWING.—Charles Roar, colored, was to-day brought before Mayor Brewer to answer the charge of vagrancy. After a hearing he was found guilty and sentenced to fifteen days in the chain gang.

The Norfolk and Western has materially improved the interior of their Suffolk depot by whitewash for the walls and shades for the windows.

The rebuilding of the Suffolk Fair Association stables, recently burned, has been begun. They will be built from the north side of the late bar-room stand, instead of southward, as heretofore.

A young couple of matrimonial inclinations applied for a nuptial permit from Clerk Gerner to-day, but were refused on account of the girl's tender years and the absence of a maternal certificate. They expected to marry tonight and hurried away to the mother's home, eleven miles distant, for the necessary permission.

Sheriff A. H. Baker, who spent several weeks at Old Dominion Hospital, Richmond, for treatment, to-day returned for consultation. His health is fast improving.

The following schooners sailed to-day: Casper Heft, Baltimore, lumber; John Rees, Washington, lumber.

Rev. J. F. Love will leave Friday for Roanoke, in which city he will preach Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church.
From Roanoke he will leave for the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Convention. Rev.
L. C. Moore will fill Mr. Love's pulpit in Suffolk Sunday morning and evening.

There was a rush for liquor licenses yesterday afternoon, that being the last chance for those who desired to continue business.

Republican mass meetings will be held in the seven wards of the city to-night for the purpose of nominating Councilmen and Magistrates. Excepting a candidate for the Mayoralty, we understand that a full ticket will be put in the field and voted for.

WITNESSES FAILED TO APPEAR.
—The witnesses, principally members of the Common Council, who were summoned to appear before the Police Commissioners at 11:30 yesterday to give specific testimony against particular officers, whom they detracted in general terms Tuesday night, refused to appear as required by the summonses because of not having been apprised of the desire of the Commissioners in time to leave their business at that time of day. The meeting was adjourned till 5 o'clock to-night, when the charges will be investigated.

This honorable body seems bent on a thorough investigation, as their only object is a good and efficient police force. We deem this investigation the proper thing. Should the guilt of any officer be made to appear, he should be suspended. If the charges prove false, the officers should have a chance for redress.

who is doing a flourishing business. She learned her trade in Canada, and worked thrifty away at her cobbler's bench in the window of her little store.
